

BRIDGE PROGRAM SYMPOSIUM

THE BRIDGE PROGRAM // BRIDGE SYMPOSIUM // #BridgeProgram19

4

DAY
- 1 -

SUNDAY, 27 OCTOBER, MELBOURNE

Pharmaceutical Discovery and Drug Development

| TIME          | SESSION                                                                                                                  | SPEAKER                                                                                                              | CHAIR                               |
|---------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| 08:15 - 09:00 | Registration &amp; arrival                                                                                        |                                                                                                                      |                                     |
| 09:00 - 09:10 | Presentation: Welcome to The Bridge Program                                                                       | Dan Grant , MTPConnect                                                                                        |                                     |
| 09:10 - 09:20 | Presentation: Outline of the Symposium                                                                            | Lyn Griffiths , QUT                                                                                           |                                     |
| 09:20 - 09:50 | Presentation: The Journey to an Investigational Drug (IND)                                                        | Ed Lobenhofer , Amgen                                                                                         | David Thomson, Amgen                |
| 09:50 - 10:20 | Presentation: Keeping the patient and treatment landscape in mind when developing early assets                    | Art Hewig , Amgen                                                                                             | David Thomson, Amgen                |
| 10:20 - 10:45 | Morning tea                                                                                                       |                                                                                                                      |                                     |
| 10:45 - 11:15 | Presentation: Generics through to Gene Therapies                                                                  | Simon Fisher , Novartis                                                                                       | David Thomson, Amgen                |
| 11:15 - 11:45 | Panel Session: Interactive Q&A                                                                                    | Ed Lobenhofer , Amgen; Art Hewig , Amgen; Simon Fisher , Novartis; Jessica Droge , Amgen | David Thomson, Amgen                |
| 11:45 - 12:00 | Partnering Experience: Introduction, Orientation and Overview of the activity                                     | Gorjana Mitic , Macquarie University                                                                          |                                     |
| 12:00 - 13:00 | Partnering Experience: Framing a Deal and Establishing your "Ask", and Refining a Pitch and Crafting the Deal     | Rob McInnes , IP AdvisoryGoslik Schepers , Brandon Capital                                         | Gorjana Mitic, Macquarie University |
| 13:00 - 13:30 | Lunch                                                                                                             |                                                                                                                      |                                     |
| 13:30 - 14:00 | Presentation: What makes a difference working with global pharmaceutical sector? A view from Business Development | Jessica Droge , Amgen                                                                                         | Anne-Maree Englund, MSD             |
| 14:00 - 14:30 | Presentation: Patient-Centricity- Just Buzzword Bingo?                                                            | Lisa Maguire , AbbVie                                                                                         | Anne-Maree Englund, MSD             |
| 14:30 - 15:00 | Presentation: Tips for Pharma/Life Sciences on how best to work with media                                        | Paul Cross , PharmaDispatch                                                                                   | Anne-Maree Englund, MSD             |
| 15:00 - 15:30 | Panel Session: Interactive Q&A                                                                                    | Lisa Maguire , AbbViePaul Cross , PharmaDispatch                                                   | Anne-Maree Englund, MSD             |
| 15:30 - 16:00 | Afternoon tea                                                                                                     |                                                                                                                      |                                     |
| 16:00 - 17:15 | Partnering Experience: First Pitch                                                                                | Gorjana Mitic , Macquarie University                                                                          |                                     |
| 17:15 - 18:30 | Drinks and Canapes                                                                                                |                                                                                                                      |                                     |

BRIDGE PROGRAM SYMPOSIUM

THE BRIDGE PROGRAM // BRIDGE SYMPOSIUM // #BridgeProgram19

5

DAY
- 2 -

MONDAY, 28 OCTOBER, MELBOURNE

Bench to Biotech

| TIME          | SESSION                                                                              | SPEAKER                                                                                     | CHAIR                   |
|---------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------|
| 09:00 - 09:10 | Recap of Day 1 and Overview of Day 2 Agenda                                   | Lyn Griffiths, QUT                                                                          |                         |
| 09:10 - 09:40 | Presentation: Commercialisation of novel drugs                                | Melissa McGregor, Pfizer                                                                    | Anand Gautam, Pfizer    |
| 09:40 - 10:10 | Presentation: Transforming thought to product                                 | Anna Lavelle, Medicines Australia                                                           | Anand Gautam, Pfizer    |
| 10:10 - 10:40 | Case Study: Commercialising for China                                         | Rob Scott, ACTI                                                                             | Anand Gautam, Pfizer    |
| 10:40 - 11:00 | Morning tea                                                                   |                                                                                             |                         |
| 11:00 - 11:30 | Presentation: How the Australian Government supports the Life Sciences sector | Charlie Day, Innovation and Science Australia                                               | Stuart Englund, Janssen |
| 11:30 - 12:00 | Presentation: The basics of Therapeutic Goods Regulation                      | Avi Rebera, TGA                                                                             | Stuart Englund, Janssen |
| 12:00 - 12:30 | Presentation: Raising Capital – Australian perspective                        | Sarah Meibusch, OneVentures                                                                 | Stuart Englund, Janssen |
| 12:30 - 12:45 | Panel Session: Interactive Q&A                                                | Charlie Day, Innovation and Science Australia; Avi Rebera, TGA; Sarah Meibusch, OneVentures | Stuart Englund, Janssen |
| 12:45 - 13:30 | Lunch                                                                         |                                                                                             |                         |
| 13:30 - 14:00 | Presentation: Australian Reimbursement options for drugs and devices          | Mark Schulz, Novartis                                                                       | Brett Roberts, Novartis |
| 14:00 - 14:30 | Case Study: The Xanamem journey                                               | Bill Ketelbey, Actinogen Medical                                                            | Brett Roberts, Novartis |
| 14:30 - 15:00 | Case Study: Certa Therapeutics – bench to biotech story                       | Darren Kelly, Certa Therapeutics                                                            | Brett Roberts, Novartis |
| 15:00 - 15:30 | Afternoon tea                                                                 |                                                                                             |                         |
| 15:30 - 17:00 | Partnering Experience: Second Pitch                                           | Gorjana Mitic, Macquarie University                                                         |                         |
| 17:00 - 18:30 | Break                                                                         |                                                                                             |                         |
| 18:30 - 19:00 | Pre-Dinner Drinks                                                             |                                                                                             |                         |
| 19:00 - 22:30 | Networking Dinner &amp; Announcement of Pitch Winners                         |                                                                                             |                         |

BRIDGE PROGRAM SYMPOSIUM

THE BRIDGE PROGRAM // BRIDGE SYMPOSIUM // #BridgeProgram19

6

DAY
- 3 -

TUESDAY, 29 OCTOBER, MELBOURNE

Biotech to Patient

| TIME          | SESSION                                                                                                                          | SPEAKER                                                                                         | CHAIR                   |
|---------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------|
| 09:00 - 09:10 | Recap of Day 2 and Overview of Day 3 Agenda                                                                               | Lyn Griffiths, QUT                                                                              |                         |
| 09:10 - 09:40 | Presentation: Community involvement in medicines access and how we access the Australian patient voice in decision making | Jo Watson, Pharmaceutical Benefits Advisory Committee                                           | Sean Lybrand, Amgen     |
| 09:40 - 10:10 | Presentation: Engaging the health ecosystem to improve patient outcomes                                                   | Sean Lybrand, Amgen                                                                             | David Thomson, Amgen    |
| 10:10 - 10:40 | Presentation: Delivering for patients in today's healthcare environment                                                   | Alex Chapman, Amgen                                                                             | Sean Lybrand, Amgen     |
| 10:40 - 11:00 | Panel Session: Interactive Q&A                                                                                            | Jo Watson, Pharmaceutical Benefits Advisory Committee; Sean Lybrand, Amgen; Alex Chapman, Amgen | David Thomson, Amgen    |
| 11:00 - 11:30 | Morning tea                                                                                                               |                                                                                                 |                         |
| 11:30 - 12:00 | Presentation: Global clinical drug development and the value of clinical trials in Australia                              | Mitch Kirkman, Novartis                                                                         | Brett Roberts, Novartis |
| 12:00 - 12:30 | Presentation: The BTB Program                                                                                             | Dan Grant, MTPConnect                                                                           | Lyn Griffiths, QUT      |
| 12:30 - 13:00 | Lunch                                                                                                                     |                                                                                                 |                         |
| 13:00 - 13:30 | Presentation: Crisscrossing Industry and Academia                                                                         | Trent Munro, UQ                                                                                 | Laura Issa, AbbVie      |
| 13:30 - 14:00 | Presentation: An unexpected journey                                                                                       | Stewart Washer, Emerald Clinics                                                                 | Laura Issa, AbbVie      |
| 14:00 - 14:30 | Case Study: Pharmaceutical external innovation in practice                                                                | Niels Emmerich, AbbVie                                                                          | Laura Issa, AbbVie      |
| 14:30 - 15:30 | Partnering Experience: Judges Feedback Session                                                                            |                                                                                                 |                         |
| 15:30 - 16:00 | Afternoon tea                                                                                                             |                                                                                                 |                         |
| 16:00 - 16:30 | Program Wrap Up                                                                                                           | Lyn Griffiths, QUT                                                                              |                         |