

Decent Work in the 21st Century Research Symposium

Symposium Program - 2nd & 3rd December, QUT, Brisbane

DAY 1, THURSDAY 2nd DECEMBER

8:30-8:55	Registration, with tea and coffee
9:00-9:05	Welcome to Country
9:05-9:15	Director's Welcome, Robyn Mayes
9:15-10:30	Guest presentation, International Tax Governance: turning reality into fantasy and pretending it is the real world E550 Kerrie Sadiq, Professor of Taxation, QUT
10:30-11:00	MORNING TEA
Morning Sessions
Session 1A. Room E550. Digitisation of Work, Chaired by Robyn Mayes
11:00-12:30	Matthew Rimmer QUT 3D Printing and the future of work: The maker movement and labour rights Phuong Anh Tran QUT Fairness perceptions on digital labour platforms: Differences by demographic factors and types of work Amber Marshall QUT Digitally skilling the Outback: Towards a framework for researching digital skills development for rural Australians Amos Tay QUT Examining technology adoption in higher education from a social justice perspective	Session 1B. Room E557. Care, Chaired by Melinda Laundon
		11:00-12:30 Deborah Munro QUT Care givers and Higher Education: Are we there yet? Joshua Kalemba, Robyn Mayes, Paula McDonald & Penny Williams QUT Young women's experiences of engaging in digital platform mediated care labour: Performativity, affective atmospheres, and in/visibility Laetitia Coles, Victoria Sullivan, Yuwei Xu, Karen Thorpe University of Queensland, University of Nottingham Persisting in the centre: challenging gender stereotypes of male educators in Early Childhood Education and Care Presentation Cancellation
12:30-1:15	LUNCH
Afternoon Sessions
Session 2A. Room E550. Decent Work, chaired by Bernd Irmer
1:15-2:45	David Williamson, Camille Palao & Erling Rasmussen Auckland University of Technology (online) Voices from the front line: A critical analysis of the 'crisis' in New Zealand hospitality Bernadetta Devi QUT Interrogating decent work in artisanal and small-scale mining in Indonesia Kieran Gregory QUT Build me up just to tear me down – The efficacy of support in whistleblowing processes Kate Down QUT Investigating the role of risk climate in balancing competing priorities in the banking sector	Session 2B. Room E557. Work, Life, Balance, chaired by Penny Williams
		1:15-2:45 Michelle Newcomb QUT A managerialist tool: Self-care rhetoric within social care agencies. Qudsia Iftikhar (online) Monash University Crafting to thrive: A self-determination perspective Jenna Mikus (online) QUT Achieving well-being while working, leveraging a novel eudaemonic design approach to achieve well-being in a COVID-19 work environment Andilip Afroze QUT How much is too much? Work-health balance in Indonesia
2:45-3:00	AFTERNOON TEA
3:00-4:00	Guest presentation, Labour Regimes in Global Production Networks E550 Neil Coe, Professor of Economic Geography, National University of Singapore (online)
4:00-4:30	Travel to Centre launch
4:30-6:00	CDWI Centre launch, Birrunnga Gallery (300 Adelaide Street, Brisbane CBD)

Decent Work in the 21st Century Research Symposium

Symposium Program - 2nd & 3rd December, QUT, Brisbane

DAY 2, FRIDAY 3rd DECEMBER

8:30-9:15	Registration, with tea and coffee
9:20-9:25	Welcome to Country
9:25-9:30	Day 2 Welcome, Bree Hurst
9:30-10:30	Guest presentation - Responsible governance for the stakeholder corporation: Co-opting and challenging Corporate Purpose Laws (online)
E550	Ben Neville, Associate Professor of Sustainable Business, University of Melbourne
10:30-11:00	MORNING TEA
Morning Sessions
Session 1A. Room E550. Financial Control and Decent Work, chaired by Deanna Grant-Smith		Session 1B. Room E558. Responsible Governance, chaired by Bree Hurst
11:00-12:30	Homaira Semeen, Annette Quayle Queen Mary University of London, QUT Accounting control and the misrecognition of worker exploitation: A case study of a compliant clothing factory Deanna Grant-Smith, Bernd Irmer, Alicia Feldman, Laura de Zwaan QUT, Griffith University Preying on those with poor financial literacy? Understanding the profile of individuals who choose to become MLM consultants Tanya Weiler & Sarah Hattam QUT, University of South Australia Isolated, illegitimate, invisible yet indispensable: The critical role of Professional Development for casual academic staff Gayani Samarakoon QUT Subordination of female apparel workers in global south factory floors Presentation cancellation	11:00-12:45 Denise Nogueira QUT Understanding transformative dynamics of social finance ecologies: The case of alternative food networks Risini Wasana Ilangasingha, Vidya Samarasinghe QUT, University of Sri Jayewardenepura, Sri Lanka The Threatened Existence of Cooperatives under Neo-liberal Economic Conditions in Sri Lanka Yasanthi Alahakoon, (online) Gayani Samarakoon, Risini Ilangasingha, Nayomi Peiris University of Sri Jayewardenepura, Sri Lanka, QUT Corporate social responsibility and vulnerable local community: A case from a developing country context Katherine Webber QUT Whose responsibility is it to ensure the right to pee and poop at work? Linda Carroli QUT Transitioning built environment professions through Climate Emergency Declarations
12:45-1:30	LUNCH
Afternoon Sessions
1:30-2:30	Guest presentation, Keeping Sisyphus permanently at the top: Rethinking how we assess and value 'care' (online)
E550	Katherine Ravenswood, Associate Professor of Employment Relations, Auckland University of Technology
2:30-2:45	SHORT COFFEE BREAK
2:45-4:00	Roundtable: 'Towards a manifesto for decent work'
4:00-4:10	Award of Best HDR Paper & Day 2 Closing Remarks
4:10-5:00	WINE & CHEESE CLOSING RECEPTION	