

QUT Design Lab: Book Launch & Lunch!

Celebrating Four Books on Co-Design, Design Education, Culture, and Commerce!

“higher education should respond to the impacts of a changing society”

“a holistic understanding of co-design, its methods, and applications”

“a bold manifesto for change”

“intermediation practice that steps beyond design thinking”

Drawing on a rich array of real-world projects, these books illustrate how design methods and mindsets, including co-design, prototyping, and design thinking, facilitate creative problem-solving in diverse healthcare, education and commerce contexts.

Please join us for lunch and hear from Design Lab authors and researchers.
