

2010 - The Use of ePortfolios in Adult Learning in Australia -

A supplementary research activity is currently being undertaken to update the data collected by the Australian ePortfolio Project (AeP) team in late 2007. The goal of this 'postscript to AeP' project is to refresh the picture of ePortfolio practice in Australia by collecting new data to identify and map the use of ePortfolios in adult learning across the higher education (HE), vocational education and training (VET) and adult community education (ACE) sectors in 2010.

This new audit of ePortfolio activity (termed AeP PS) will serve to update the data reported in AeP Stage 1, to determine the scope of ePortfolio use, the technological context and the underpinning philosophies and drivers that have contributed to the development and use of ePortfolio tools.

As with AeP Stage 1, there are three separate surveys which have been tailored in order to elicit information from the different perspectives of:

- Learning and Teaching
- Human Resources and staff development
- Management

You are only required to complete ONE survey.

The survey has an exploratory focus. It is anticipated that we may wish to ask supplementary questions as a follow-up and therefore we have requested respondents to identify themselves and provide a contact email address. However, all data collected through the survey will be treated confidentially and will remain completely anonymous. The research findings from the survey may be published in research reports and will be presented at the ePortfolios Australia conference in November 2010. The report will be made available on the Australian Flexible Learning Framework website - <http://www.flexiblelearning.net.au/e-portfolios> and on the AeP website - <http://www.eportfolioppractice.qut.edu.au/>

Please pass the URL for this online survey to other staff in your institution who you feel may be able to complete it effectively on your behalf or to people, either in your own or in other institutions, who you believe can provide different perspectives on ePortfolio practice.

If you have any queries regarding the survey, please contact:
