

T³: Today's Teaching Tip

Increasing students' in-class questions

- Students could ask questions to improve their understanding of a subject and its relationships to other subjects.
- Why don't they ask these questions? Is it shyness, lack of motivation, or unpreparedness?
- With the person next to you, please discuss ...
- What questions do you want your students to ask (rhetorical, leading, insincere, ...)?
- How about reverse engineering the logic of Bloom's taxonomy of critical abilities into question forms?
